Committees Fletcher Place has many exciting committees that you can become involved in. Look over the list and contact the committee chairperson for more information.

Finance: Includes the treasurer's report on the final balances in the checking account, and on a quarterly basis a year-to-date recap of the cash inflows and outflows. To join this committee, contact Laura Pickett.

Marketing/Communications: Social: The Social Committee handles posting on social media sites. Content includes neighborhood events, meetings, promoting neighborhood awareness and any other neighborhood related content. Includes updates on the next inclusion of the Parchment in the Urban Times, as well as any needs, such as help with writing articles. To join this committee, Contact Krissie Aguilar, Amy McAdams- Gonzales or Matt Impink for more information.

Membership: Includes updates on the current totals for membership in the association. Once a year, involves the membership drive and mailing efforts. To join this committee, contact Allissa Impink.

Land Use: This committee meets when proposals for zoning or COAs need to be reviewed. Their role is to provide a suggested position for the association to take regarding a given proposal. They also look at other issues that affect the land usage of the neighborhood. To join this committee, contact Joel Aguilar.

Events: This committee has the goals of building community & connections among neighbors, welcoming new residents, and promoting involvement in the neighborhood. To join this committee, contact Sarah Savage.

FPICC: The Fletcher Place Inclusive Community Committee promotes and sustains an inclusive community that embraces diversity and advances equity in every area of the neighborhood; to fulfill this vision, the FPICC will engage in ongoing, reflective efforts to foster a sense of belonging and to provide empowering transformative learning experiences for all neighbors, businesses, and community stakeholders.
